Social investors in the marketplace

The Architectural Heritage Fund is a leading heritage social investor and lender. It works across the UK to promote the conservation and sustainable re-use of historic buildings for the benefit of communities.

CAF Venturesome is the social investment arm of Charities Aid Foundation. We have been connecting charities and social enterprises with philanthropic capital since 2002.

Charity Bank is a savings and loans bank with a mission to use money for good.

Co-operative and Community Finance is a lender for social purpose lending to ethical businesses since 1973.

Ethex is the positive savings and investment platform that makes it easy to make money do good.

Homeless Link is the national membership charity for organisations working directly with people who become homeless in England. It has a programme to invest in charities and social enterprises across England working to reduce homelessness.

Joseph Rowntree Foundation does research to understand the causes and find solutions to poverty. Our social investments fit firmly into the middle of this strategy.

The Key Fund's mission is to provide the right kind of money at the right time for the development and growth of sustainable and impactful community and social enterprises that are unable to secure support from elsewhere.

Kingdom Bank is a Christian bank providing mortgages, savings accounts and insurance advice.

NatWest Social & Community Capital offers a helping hand to social ventures looking to scale, through loans, provided with flexible terms and business support.

The North East Social Investment Fund (managed by Northstar Ventures) is a unique fund providing impact investments to charities and social enterprises in the region.

Social Finance partners with the government, social sector and financial community to find solutions to society's most difficult problems.

Social Investment Business provides loans, grants and strategic support to charities and social enterprises to help them improve people's lives.

Social and Sustainable Capital supports charities and social enterprises in the UK with loans and investments. Our mission is to help these organisations deliver scalable and sustainable solutions to social issues by providing them with the appropriate capital to allow them to grow and to help those most in need in our society today.

Sporting Capital is the first social investment fund that focuses specifically on organisations and projects that help to develop communities through sport and physical activity.

UnLtd is a charity which supports social entrepreneurs – people with vision, drive, commitment and passion who are coming up with solutions which can change the world for the better.

Development
Programme

Enterprise Development Programme

Deborah Smart, Social Investment Business

The Enterprise Development Programme is a new 5 year, £40m programme funded by Access. The programme will provide a broad range of support for charities and social enterprises in England, helping them make a transition to new enterprise models, or grow existing ones. It is launching its pilot phase for organisations working the Homelessness and Youth sectors in September, and Deborah will be providing details of the support and grants on offer.

GET INFORMED – Social investment for boards

Melanie Mills, Big Society Capital

GET INFORMED – Social investment for boards offers free practical support, guidance and information to help board members of charities and social enterprises understand the opportunities and risks of social investment including through the provision of free mentoring support. Melanie will be talking in more detail about what GET INFORMED offers as well as how charities and social enterprises can sign-up to get the free support and resources available.

Reach Fund

*Deborah Smart, Social Investment Business &
Adrian Bean, The Key Fund*

The Reach Fund is a two year grant programme funded by Access that helps charities and social enterprises raise investment. Social investors are often approached by charities and social enterprises who require extra support to raise investment. Through this programme, social investors can refer these organisations to the Reach Fund to apply for grants to pay for the support they need. Deborah will talk about how the Reach Fund has been working. You'll also hear from Adrian from the Key Fund (one of the Access Point providers) who will share some case studies of how this money has helped some local organisations to take on investment.

Northern Cultural Regeneration Social Investment Fund

Scott Gordon, DCMS

The NCRF Social Investment Fund is a new source of repayable finance (with an option to allocate a portion as grant funding) for cultural and creative organisations in the North of England that aim to have a demonstrable social impact on their communities. Scott will introduce the Government Inclusive Economy Unit and its role in bringing the fund to bear, and its wider social investment programmes and policy objectives.

ONE UNITE

One Unite Partnership \(CIC\) is a not-for-profit energy and telecoms company. We were set up to support charities, not-for-profits and organisations that do social good keep money in their pockets rather than increase profits of large businesses. And because we are a social enterprise, we use up to 80% of our commission to create grants for every organisation we work with.

Veterans at Ease is a UK-registered charity committed to helping Veterans, Reservists, Serving Military Personnel and their families deal with Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and other combat stress-related issues. We will help anyone who feels they need our support whether they have been diagnosed with PTSD or not.

EVA Women's Aid was established in 1987 to support women and children in Redcar and Cleveland fleeing domestic abuse and sexual violence. Our aim is to provide a range of free, confidential and non-judgemental specialist support services for women and children who have, at some point in their lives been affected by domestic abuse and/or sexual violence.

JAZZ.COOP
NEWCASTLE

Jazz Coop is a community cooperative set up to support the learning, performance and development of jazz, related music and the arts. Based at the Globe in Newcastle upon Tyne, we are the first cooperative in the UK to own a music venue and education centre. We put on gigs and courses there and at other venues.
