

New Opportunity - Investment Manager

South West - £Competitive plus benefits

Big Society Capital are supporting one of our growing partner investment firms with their recruit undertaking for an Investment Manager to join the fund within the South West.

This is an exciting opportunity for an experienced commercial investment manager (ideally with knowledge of the housing, clean energy or social sectors) to build a portfolio under a new umbrella fund.

The opportunity will suit someone who is comfortable operating in an entrepreneurial SME environment, working under their own initiative and demonstrating effective decision-making. The successful candidate will have the ability to create ad hoc deal structures, ranging from pre-revenue and early-stage to small and large-scale investments, assessing them both on a commercial and social basis, before presenting recommendations to the board.

They will also be able to communicate with a range of stake-holders, and provide active portfolio management - building long-term relationships, identifying additional funding requirements and provided exit-strategies if required.
